President's Message

Members,

I cannot believe a year has gone by already. I would like to thank all the members that have helped me this past year as President, VP, and treasurer for TAG. I am excited to have a full board which will be better able to serve our members. Don't hesitate to volunteer to serve on a committee or help out another member. The board will have a planning meeting over the summer.

I wish I had been able to be there to thank last year's board and to welcome this year's board. But unfortunately that was not possible. I am sorry for the typo on the awards booklet, not listing our judge Barbara Millican. The judging was done May 29, and the awards handed out on June 1, obviously not enough time for me to write checks and ribbons, type booklet and proof read very well.

Last month someone made the suggestion to have the meeting day and time and demo artist on the first page of the newsletter. The date for our September meeting will be announced in August when the board decides on the date due to the Labor Day holiday. If you look at the top of this page you will note that it has been up there for as long as I have been doing the newsletter and Bennie before me. However, our website also lists all the demo artists for the year, the meeting dates and times, the gallery show schedule including the juried and non juried shows, the prospectuses, TAGTALK, show winners, the traveling exhibits and more. Susan Wibowo has been helping with the website and I am happy to say that Susan will be taking over this job for me this year. Thank you, Susan. Susan will be updating the website this summer to include all of our events for the coming year.

News

Painting of the month in May: 1st Place - Margaret Pfarrer; 2nd Place - Linda McDonald

Painting of the year in June: Darla Schneider

Sharon Chatterton's "Summer II" won the People's Choice award.

TAG artists are invited to participate in Grapevine Art Project (GAP) free art show and sale in downtown Grapevine Friday, July 17th from 2pm until dark in the Liberty Park (by the Torian cabin) in conjunction with Summer nights, where restaurants sample their food at the Gazebo. Each artist will get a 10' by 10' space with one table and chair (if they want them). They can do whatever they want with their space, easels, displays, racks, prints and tents all okay. I think most spaces are approachable on three sides. Any who want to are encouraged to paint live if they want. There is room for an additional 30 artists, 22 are booked as of right now, rest on first come -- first served basis by reservation email to Pat Fairchild with a yes/no on the table chair reservation at fairchild41@gmail.com.

Gallery Shows

*Currently our gallery is showing the Americana/Patriotic show until July 21st. The Summer Days show comes in July 21st, Tuesday, from 9am to 9pm and runs until August 18th when the Teacher, student, and new member show enters. Entries are accepted Tuesday August 18, 9am to 9pm. September 15th Tuesday, 9am to 9pm. the Shinning Stars auction paintings will be displayed. For the complete show schedule go to www.trinityartsguild.org, gallery calendar. Please remember we take in and exchange out paintings on the third Tuesday of the month from 9am to 9pm. We have the gallery staffed for one day for all members to drop off and pick up their paintings. Thank you for following TAG show policies; we want to handle your paintings with care while in our gallery, logged in and out and properly displayed without damage or loss to you. Work will not be accepted at other times unless specifically changed by the Vice President or the Gallery director.

Gallery Sitters ...a message from Linda Longshore

Linda Longshore is our new gallery sitter chairperson. I am sure she is looking forward to calling you to help you volunteer at TAG.

Thank you

I would like to thank Barbara Hilliard for organizing the Bob Rohm workshop in June. The participants would like to have another workshop with Bob this year.

I would like to thank the board and other members for taking over and running the last meeting of the year, while I was home having a new air-conditioning unit installed. Thank you to all members who brought refreshments. I do not know who brought what, but I am sure that everything was delicious.
